<https://www.citymuseum.org/>

Do not take the name so literally. We are about fun. Not your white walls, walk around, and be quiet museum. If you want to climb around, get active with your kids or are a big kid at heart, we are the place. If you are freaked out easily, you might not want to come. We're four floors filled with miles of tunnels, a full cave system, over 30 slides, a circus, an arts area, a large outdoor climbing space, Architectural Museum, a Cabin that serves adult beverages, a Museum of Mayhem, Mirth and Mystery, and a ton more. In addition, there is the roof with a Ferris Wheel and a bus hanging off its edge.

HOURS: Mon – Thursday - 9:00 AM - 5:00 PM
Fri – Saturday - 9:00 AM - 12:00 AM

- Missouri Civil War Museum

DURATION 1- 2 HOURS

The Missouri Civil War Museum is housed in the old 1905 Jefferson Barracks Post Exchange (PX) and Gymnasium building, formerly part of the Jefferson Barracks military post, which is still an active military installation to this day. Renovations began in 2003, and completed 10 years later in 2013, with an opening date of June 29, 2013. During the Civil War, the property that this museum is located upon, contained various hospital ward buildings, where suffering and death occurred, thus making this sacred ground and a most appropriate location for a Missouri Civil War Museum, honoring our soldiers of the past and present.
